

THE LEADERSHIP

A PROGRAM OF THE GREATER BALTIMORE COMMITTEE

A MESSAGE TO LEADERSHIP APPLICANTS....

By following these simple instructions, your application process will go smoothly. Please rest assured that all applications are subject to confidential evaluation. Applications from candidates who are not selected to participate in the 2010 program will be retained by the committee for consideration for later participation, if they so choose.

- 1) Our preference is for you to apply on line, if you are not applying on line, but instead downloading your application, please mail original, plus 5 copies to the address below. In addition, e-mail one digital photo (high resolution, no larger than 300 dpi, jpeg) to triciae@gbc.org. Please submit all information to:

Executive Director
The LEADERship
111 S. Calvert Street - Suite 1700
Baltimore, MD 21202

- 2) Please accompany your application with the formal nomination form. (If you are the senior ranking person in your company, you need not fill out a nomination form. The nomination form is our way of assuring your company will provide the work release time and fulfill the tuition requirements). The nomination form is not for friends who are supporting your application. Please list them as references on the application.
- 3) Please submit your application. Applicants will be contacted shortly thereafter to schedule their interviews; class selection and notification of acceptance will be finalized by mid-December.
- 4) Tuition for the 2010 program is $6800.00, and is billed to applicants or their sponsoring organizations upon acceptance in the program. Partial scholarships are available to applicants/sponsoring organizations with financial need (see page 3 of application). Eligibility and amount granted are dictated by fund availability. A request for scholarship funds will neither positively nor negatively impact their eligibility in the program.
- 5) Questions about the process of applying on-line should go to Tricia Ellis, Assistant Director. Information about the program may be obtained by contacting Jan Houbolt, Executive Director of The LEADERShip. Both can be reached at 410-727-2820.
